Exercise - PHP Program - Using SQL

1.Create a PHP program to design a simple Curriculum Vitae webpage

a) Use HTML within a PHP script to structure a basic Curriculum Vitae (CV) page.

b) Include sections like profile, education, work experience, and skills.

c) Use style the CV using CSS for proper formatting

2. write a PHP program to implement a hit counter using cookies

a. To track the number of times a user visits a specific page.

b. Create and update a cookie each time the page is loaded

c. Set a cookie to expire.

3. create a web page to advertise a company's product using images and audio

a. To embed images and audio files on a web page using HTML.

b. Structure a product advertisement page, highlighting key features and benefits of the product

c. To use media files (images, audio) to attract customers' attention

4. Create a web page for a software company

a. Create sections that have software company's website include such as services, contact information, portfolio etc.

b. Use HTML to structure these sections, and applied CSS to style the site professionally.

c. Present information about the company's software services to potential clients.

5. Create a PHP login system using sessions

a. Validate user credentials such as username and password using PHP.

b. use PHP sessions to keep track of a logged-in user